COUNCIL RELEASES SCHEDULE OF OUTREACH MEETINGS TO RECEIVE INPUT ON THE ALTERNATIVES ANALYSIS REPORT

(HONOLULU)—The Transportation & Planning Committee will be holding a series of community outreach meetings in November 2006, which will allow the public to give their input on the Alternatives Analysis (AA) Report on the Honolulu High Capacity Transit Project. All meetings are scheduled to begin at 6:30 pm.

"The public is welcomed to attend and make their voices heard," said Councilmember Romy Cachola, who chairs the Transportation & Planning Committee. "The Council's intention is to make the selection process of the Locally-Preferred Alternative as open and as transparent as possible."

The meetings are scheduled as follows:

- November 13, 2006 McKinley High School Cafeteria
- November 16, 2006 Kapolei Hale
- November 17, 2006 Kalakaua Middle School Cafeteria
- November 20, 2006 Windward Community College (Hale Akoakoa Room 105)
- November 21, 2006 Pearlridge Elementary Cafeteria
- November 22, 2006 Mililani District Park (Multi-Purpose Room)
- November 27, 2006 Radford High School Cafeteria

Prior to receiving public testimony, the Department of Transportation Services will first make a brief presentation on the Alternatives Analysis Report.
